

Titus 2:11-15

Guest Speaker: Jonathon Jankovich

July 10, 2011

¹¹ For the grace of God has appeared, with salvation for all people, ¹² instructing us to deny godlessness and worldly lusts and to live in a sensible, righteous, and godly way in the present age, ¹³ while we wait for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. ¹⁴ He gave Himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to cleanse for Himself a special people, eager to do good works. ¹⁵ Say these things, and encourage and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

(2:11) Grace brings salvation for all people

(2:12) Grace instructs us to:

- (a) deny ungodliness
- (b) deny worldly lusts
- (c) live in a sensible way
- (d) live in a righteous way
- (e) live in a godly way

(2:12-13) Grace only affects our present age, but it also prepares us for the return of Jesus Christ!

(2:14) Jesus gave Himself for us:

- (a) to redeem us from all lawlessness
- (b) to cleanse/purify for Himself a special people
- (c) to enable us to be eager/zealous to do good works

(2:15) For Titus (and for us all):

- (a) Say these things often
- (b) Encourage one another with them
- (c) rebuke with all authority (when necessary)
- (d) Let no one disregard you

– We need to preach the gospel to ourselves every day

– If God loved us so much then, He does not love us any less now.
