Christmas Mailbox

There are mail slots in the lobby for you to drop off cards to others in the CPF family. We suggest you donate postage saved to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for International Missions.

Please check the mailbox each week for cards people may have left for you.

MEN'S SOFTBALL

If enough guys would like to play in the Manatee County Church Softball League, we'll start practices in January. Please contact Wayne to sign up or with any questions.

Wayne Bronkema's Sunday Life

Group begins a new study today:

ACTS: The Church and the Mission.

If you're not currently attending another Life Group, we invite you to join us!

END OF YEAR & 2021 NOTES

Giving Envelopes are available for all regular attenders who would like a box. If you do not have a box of 2020 envelopes, but would like them for 2021, please let the office know.

Have you changed to giving online or through your bank and no longer need a box? We'd appreciate knowing that as well.

Contribution statements will be mailed in early January. Please make all 2020 donations by December 27 if possible.

Give online or use the app!

There's a "Giving" tab on our website. If you prefer a mobile app, it's GivePlus Remember you can also give regularly by setting up automatic payments through your bank.

Giving Note: The Church Council has authorized "designated giving" for several ministries. We will, if possible, within our bylaws and IRS regulations, use these funds in the manner you have requested, however, your recommendation (designation) is advisory and CPF retains full control over these funds.

Storms, Providence and Responsibility

(Giving Thanks to God aboard a Sinking Ship)

Resuming our study in Acts from 9/20/20

11/29/20

2 Timothy 4:5 ...be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

<sup>6</sup> For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come.

<sup>7</sup> I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith;

<sup>8</sup> in the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day; and not only to me, but also to all who have loved His appearing.

<sup>9</sup> Make every effort to come to me soon;

<sup>10</sup> for Demas, having loved this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.

<sup>11</sup> Only Luke is with me. Pick up Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service.

<sup>13</sup> When you come bring the cloak which I left at Troas with Carpus, and the books, especially the parchments.

<sup>14</sup> Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm; the Lord will repay him according to his deeds.

<sup>15</sup> Be on guard against him yourself, for he vigorously opposed our teaching.

<sup>16</sup> At my first defense no one supported me, but all deserted me; may it not be counted against them.

<sup>17</sup> But the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me, in order that through me the proclamation might be fully accomplished, and that all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the lion's mouth.

<sup>18</sup> The Lord will deliver me from every evil deed, and will bring me safely to His heavenly kingdom; to Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Acts 27:1 And when it was decided that we should sail for Italy, they proceeded to deliver Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion of the Augustan cohort named Julius.

<sup>2</sup> And embarking in an Adramyttian ship, which was about to sail to the regions along the coast of Asia, we put out to sea, accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica.

<sup>3</sup> And the next day we put in at Sidon; and Julius treated Paul with consideration and allowed him to go to his friends and receive care.

<sup>4</sup> And from there we put out to sea and sailed under the shelter of Cyprus because the winds were contrary.

<sup>5</sup> And when we had sailed through the sea along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we landed at Myra in Lycia.

<sup>6</sup> And there the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy, and he put us aboard it.

<sup>7</sup> And when we had sailed slowly for a good many days, and with difficulty had arrived off Cnidus, since the wind did not permit us to go farther, we sailed under the shelter of Crete, off Salmone;

<sup>8</sup> and with difficulty sailing past it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near which was the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup> And when considerable time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, since even the fast was already over, Paul began to admonish them,

<sup>10</sup> and said to them, "Men, I perceive that the voyage will certainly be attended with damage and great loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives."

<sup>11</sup> But the centurion was more persuaded by the pilot and the captain of the ship, than by what was being said by Paul.

<sup>12</sup> And because the harbor was not suitable for wintering, the majority reached a decision to put out to sea from there, if somehow they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete, facing southwest and northwest, and spend the winter there.

<sup>13</sup> And when a moderate south wind came up, supposing that they had gained their purpose, they weighed anchor and began sailing along Crete, close inshore.

<sup>14</sup> But before very long there rushed down from the land a violent wind, called Euraquilo;

<sup>15</sup> and when the ship was caught in it, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and let ourselves be driven along.

<sup>16</sup> And running under the shelter of a small island called Clauda, we were scarcely able to get the ship's boat under control.

<sup>17</sup> And after they had hoisted it up, they used supporting cables in undergirding the ship; and fearing that they might run aground on the shallows of Syrtis, they let down the sea anchor, and so let themselves be driven along.

<sup>18</sup> The next day as we were being violently storm-tossed, they began to jettison the cargo;

<sup>19</sup> and on the third day they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands.

<sup>20</sup> And since neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small storm was assailing us, from then on all hope of our being saved was gradually abandoned.

<sup>21</sup> And when they had gone a long time without food, then Paul stood up in their midst and said, "Men, you ought to have followed my advice and not to have set sail from Crete, and incurred this damage and loss.

<sup>22</sup> "And yet now I urge you to keep up your courage, for there shall be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

<sup>23</sup> "For this very night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood before me,

<sup>24</sup> saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar; and behold, God has granted you all those who are sailing with you.'

<sup>25</sup> "Therefore, keep up your courage, men, for I believe God, that it will turn out exactly as I have been told.

<sup>26</sup> "But we must run aground on a certain island."

<sup>27</sup> But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were being driven about in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors began to surmise that they were approaching some land.

<sup>28</sup> And they took soundings, and found it to be twenty fathoms; and a little farther on they took another sounding and found it to be fifteen fathoms.

<sup>29</sup> And fearing that we might run aground somewhere on the rocks, they cast four anchors from the stern and wished for daybreak.

<sup>30</sup> And as the sailors were trying to escape from the ship, and had let down the ship's boat into the sea, on the pretense of intending to lay out anchors from the bow,

<sup>31</sup> Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these men remain in the ship, you yourselves cannot be saved."

<sup>32</sup> Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the ship's boat, and let it fall away.

<sup>33</sup> And until the day was about to dawn, Paul was encouraging them all to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you have been constantly watching and going without eating, having taken nothing.

<sup>34</sup> "Therefore I encourage you to take some food, for this is for your preservation; for not a hair from the head of any of you shall perish."

<sup>35</sup> And having said this, he took bread and gave thanks to God in the presence of all; and he broke it and began to eat.

<sup>36</sup> And all of them were encouraged, and they themselves also took food.

<sup>37</sup> And all of us in the ship were two hundred and seventy-six persons.

<sup>38</sup> And when they had eaten enough, they began to lighten the ship by throwing out the wheat into the sea.

<sup>39</sup> And when day came, they could not recognize the land; but they did observe a certain bay with a beach, and they resolved to drive the ship onto it if they could.

<sup>40</sup> And casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea while at the same time they were loosening the ropes of the rudders, and hoisting the foresail to the wind, they were heading for the beach.

<sup>41</sup> But striking a reef where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern began to be broken up by the force of the waves.

<sup>42</sup> And the soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, that none of them should swim away and escape;

<sup>43</sup> but the centurion, wanting to bring Paul safely through, kept them from their intention, and commanded that those who could swim should jump overboard first and get to land,

<sup>44</sup> and the rest should follow, some on planks, and others on various things from the ship. And thus it happened that they all were brought safely to land.

Acts 28:1 And when they had been brought safely through, then we found out that the island was called Malta.

<sup>2</sup> And the natives showed us extraordinary kindness; for because of the rain that had set in and because of the cold, they kindled a fire and received us all.

<sup>3</sup> But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

<sup>4</sup> And when the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another, "Undoubtedly this man is a murderer, and though he has been saved from the sea, justice has not allowed him to live."

<sup>6</sup> But they were expecting that he was about to swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But after they had waited a long time and had seen nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and began to say that he was a god.
