Our thanks to Steve DeWitt for bringing today's message while Ed is away.

NEXT SUNDAY!

Fill the Boat—July 25

Let's "Fill the Boat" with Back-to-School items for Guardian Angels (foster parent ministry.)

We're collecting backpacks, lunch boxes and school supplies. Please pray about how you can help and bring your items on (or before) Sunday, July 25 and place them either on the floor in front of the lobby's rowboat, or place lightweight items in the boat.

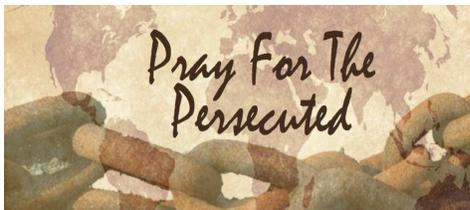

SURF CAMP TODAY

Surf Camp is for elementary age kids, but adult and youth volunteers are needed. You don't need to know how to surf, just be willing to stand beside kids as they practice the art of surfing.

The camp is free and meets at 2:00 p.m. on the Gulf beach at White Avenue.

Willing to help? It would be great if you could join us at the church around 1:30 to help get everything to the beach.

Dear Heavenly Father, We seldom know their names. Your people are under attack, but it's hard to pray for them individually for there are so many and they are oppressed in places beyond our knowledge. Yet we are to remember them as though we ourselves were with them. As we go about our daily lives, remind us that somewhere today a believer is facing condemnation, coercion, intimidation, and discrimination.

Some will be imprisoned in jails and cargo containers. Some will face torture. Somewhere today, Lord, a young person will be rejected by family and friends. Though we don't know their names, we know the Name of their God. We implore You, Lord, on their behalf: give them relief and release.

Even more, strengthen them with power in their inner beings. Give them a testimony that cannot be denied and a fire that cannot be quenched. May they triumph over their prosecutors and persecutors. May Your Word spread to the ends of the earth. Prepare us to serve You without wavering, whether by life or by death. For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
